

Alcoholic Beverage License Application Instructions

AGENT INFORMATION

1. All applications must name one person as the agent of the licensee, who shall be responsible for any matter relating to the licenses. Mailing any notice required under the law to the agent named, at the mailing address provided shall be deemed sufficient notice to a licensee.
2. Any person named as agent on this application must be employed and regularly scheduled to work at the licensed location a minimum of 30 hours per week; and must be an employee with directorial authority over the operations of the enterprise, including (1) authority to hire and fire staff or oversee the process for making personnel decisions; (2) responsibility to train staff or oversee staff training, and to enforce staff policy compliance requirements; (3) authority to set and revise local business policies and practices, or to oversee the implementation or revision of local business policies and practices; and (4) authority to purchase and receive alcoholic beverage inventory for the enterprise, or to oversee alcoholic beverage inventory purchasing;
3. Any person named as agent on this application shall be personally and independently responsible for ensuring that all statements submitted on any license application or renewal are true and correct, and for ensuring that all state and local laws governing the commercial manufacture, distribution, and sale of alcoholic beverages are followed.
4. If any licensee, or any employee or other person acting at the direction thereof, shall be cited or charged with any violation of the Macon-Bibb County Code of Ordinances relating to the commercial manufacture, distribution, or sale of alcoholic beverages, then the agent of such licensee may also be charged with the offense of serving as an agent of a licensee in violation of the same Code provision if the agent in question directed, aided, participated in, ratified, or had knowledge of the actions underlying said violation; or that the agent in question had knowledge of the commission of a prior, similar violation committed by the same person, licensed entity, or employee within the previous calendar year.
5. If an agent becomes unwilling or unable to serve as agent for any reason, the licensee has ten business days in which to appoint a new agent, and to provide in writing all information required of agents as part of an application for a new license. Licensees and applicants may appoint a new agent by filing a written notice with the Department of Business Development Services on an approved form. Until a new agent is appointed, the mailing of any notice to the most recent agent of record shall be sufficient notice to a licensee. The new agent must also be fingerprinted and shall be responsible for paying any fees associated therewith. The failure to appoint a new agent within ten business days shall be grounds for revocation of your license.

MY COMMISSION EXPIRES

ALCOHOL HANDLER'S LICENSES

1. Macon-Bibb County now requires certain individuals responsible for the service or sale of alcoholic beverages at retail to obtain an "Alcohol Handler's License." This license ensures that individuals responsible for selling alcohol at retail, or overseeing the sale of alcohol at retail, are known to Macon-Bibb County, and are properly trained in the safe sales and service of alcoholic beverages.

2. In order to obtain ANY license that includes the sale of beer, wine, or liquor, whether for consumption on premises or packaged to go, including brewpub, malt beverage taproom, or cocktail room licenses, the following people must possess valid Alcohol Handler's licenses:
 - (A) Any person who holds a twenty-five percent or greater ownership interest, whether directly or through any number of legal entities, in the business to be licensed, except that this requirement does not apply to publicly traded companies; and

 - (B) The agent, if any, designated on the alcohol license.

3. NOTE: Applicants may receive a license as long as all of the people listed above have alcohol handler's licenses. However, for businesses selling alcohol for consumption on premises, other than restaurants earning more than 50% of their revenue from food sales, all employees or independent contractors responsible for pouring, mixing, or opening alcoholic beverages; and every person responsible with supervising or managing those employees or independent contractors, MUST each have their own alcohol handler's licenses in order to work at the licensed business.

NON-CRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant that is the subject of a Georgia only or a Georgia and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) national fingerprint/biometric-based criminal history record check for a non-criminal justice purpose (such as an application for a job or license, immigration or naturalization, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification that your fingerprints/biometrics will be used to check the criminal history records maintained by the Georgia Crime Information Center (GCIC) and the FBI, when a federal record check is so authorized.
- If your fingerprints/biometrics are used to conduct a FBI national criminal history check, you are provided a copy of the Privacy Act Statement that would normally appear on the FBI fingerprint card.
- If you have a criminal history record, the agency making a determination of your suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The agency must advise you of the procedures for changing, correcting, or updating your criminal history record as set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a Georgia or FBI criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the agency denies you the job, license or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.
- In the event an adverse employment or licensing decision is made, you must be informed of all information pertinent to that decision to include the contents of the record and the effect the record had upon the decision. Failure to provide all such information to the person subject to the adverse decision shall be a misdemeanor [O.C.G.A. § 35-3-34(b) and §35-3-35(b)].

You have the right to expect the agency receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of state and/or federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.

If the employment/licensing agency policy permits, the agency may provide you with a copy of your Georgia or FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, information regarding how to obtain a copy of your Georgia, FBI or other state criminal history may be obtained at the GBI website (<http://gbi.georgia.gov/obtaining-criminal-history-record-information>).

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your Georgia or FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to GCIC provided the disputed arrest occurred in Georgia. Instructions to dispute the accuracy of your criminal history can be obtained at the GBI website (<http://gbi.georgia.gov/obtaining-criminal-history-record-information>).

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Applicant Privacy Rights
Notification Signature Form

Applicant Notification and Record Challenge:

Your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI. You have the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information contained in the FBI identification record. The procedure for obtaining a change, correction or updating an FBI identification record is set forth in Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations 16.34.

Procedures for obtaining a copy of the FBI criminal history record are set forth in 28 CFR 16.30 – 16.33 or go to the FBI website at <http://fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks>.
