Catoosa County Launches New Echeck Payment Option

Ringgold, Georgia —Catoosa County Tax Commissioner Gary W. Autry announced today that his office has launched a low cost convenience fee option to assist the tax payers of Catoosa County. The online tax web site www.catoosataxes.com now offers citizens the option of paying their property taxes using E-Check. E-Check charges only a flat rate of $1.50 regardless of the online tax bill amount.

“Our new online tax web site allows our citizens to search, view, and pay their Property Tax information from the convenience of their smartphone or tablet without pinching, pulling, or scrolling their screen” says Commissioner Autry. Citizens can pay online using any one of the four major credit cards, a PayPal account, PayPal Credit, and now by E-Check. In addition, citizens can pull up their tax bill and tax receipts along with submitting an address change and signing up for ebilling on the new tax web site.

The Tax Office in Catoosa County plans to continue to upgrade the technology and services they offer citizens. “Our office will continue to look for opportunities to make our citizen services more convenient” says Commissioner Autry.

The online site was developed and is maintained by Sturgis Web Serves of Fort Mill, South Carolina www.sturgiswebservices.com . PayPal (NASDAQ: PYPL) is a global payments platform processing over 4 billion payments, of which 1 billion were made on mobile devices.
